

BROOKS & BOWSKILL - Blissful State of Mind LYRIC SHEET

1) Draw the Line

Weeping Devil still on your back
How much more can you give
Running dry, tires flat
Are the rewards worth what you spend

Ain't it time to draw the line
In stone rather than sand
Release, find some peace
Move forward not back

Man who speaks a million words
Thinks he's prolific
Throwing them like fire but I prefer
To protect our quiet

Ain't it time to draw the line
In stone rather than sand
Release, find some peace
Move forward not back

2) Never Be There Again

Learn to slowly face my fears
And take a good look in the mirror
I'll never be there again

Mind control and feelings buried
Makes me bruised, scarred and weary
I'll never be there again

Weakened I will be no longer
And I know my mind is stronger
I'll never be there again
I'll never be there again
I'll never be there again

3) Carousel of Time

Running in a circle, lost child
Looking for a place to call home
I hear that loving is coming back in style
Let the sparrow sing, let the cowboy roam

All of the while, I'd been wandering
Selling my sorrows by the pound
Holding the key to freedom
While the carousel of time was spinning round
Reminders following me close behind
Of all my daydreams left unknown
I hear that patience ain't hard to find
Let the pattern change, let the garden grow

All of the while, I'd been wandering
Selling my sorrows by the pound
Holding the key to freedom
While the carousel of time was spinning round
Reminders following me close behind
Of all my daydreams left unknown
I hear that patience ain't hard to find
Let the pattern change, let the garden grow

Round

4) Francis

Born in the East with a different name
Where the lighthouse shines and the seas untamed
A love so strong but too young to grow
With much appreciation she let you go

Looking for trouble and seeing double
Covering ground with 302 rumble
The falcon flies, she's taking you home
Back to a life you've never known

Francis you run
Francis you ride
There's ghost in the past and you cannot hide
Francis you run
Francis you ride
You'll find peace, you'll find peace on the other side

Seeking love in forgotten places
With guilty hearts and unknown faces
They'll be tears and laughter tonight
While the fiddles play into the morning light

Francis you run
Francis you ride
There's ghost in the past and you cannot hide
Francis you run
Francis you ride
You'll find peace, you'll find peace on the other side

5) Blissful State of Mind

Calmness surround us now
While the morning rolls on in
And the birds are flying high
Catchin' that wild wind

When I'm feeling weary
Chasing off all the light
Let me live
Let me live
In a blissful state of mind

When forgiveness feels way off course
Failures painted on my face
Know spring will be back again
Bringing in a brighter day

When I'm feeling weary
To all sympathy I'm blind
Let me live
Let me live
In a blissful state of mind

Dear friend I'm calling to you
From the comforts of the dark
Take my hand, I'll pull you out
When the times are proving hard

Cause when you're feeling weary
Chasing off all the light
Let us live
Let us live

Let us live
In a blissful state of mind

6) Over and Over

Who can know
If we will
Make it 'till the end
Who can say that I won't
Let you down
Don't let me down
Don't let me down again

Following the white waters I was running fast
To a voice calling that already knew me by name
How green am I to be standing on a stage
Laughing and crying and relating
Over and over but never once the same
Lover to lover what leaves and what remains

Good morning true love
Been waiting just for you
Good morning true love
Been waiting just for you
See the sun shining through
Feel my heart, it's all for you
It's all for you
It's all for you

Following the white waters I was running fast
To a voice calling that already knew me by name

7) You Run To

I know the story often is long
That I've been wrong so many times before
One kiss and I'm right back where I belong
I wanna go where you go

Baby, you really got a hold on me
Wanna chase the sun and moon around with you
All around with you
Lately everything feels lighter
Wanna be the one you run to
One you run to

You run to, you run to

Star beams and daydreams filling up my mind
Every time my love is near
Turn me in your hand
Lose me in your smile
The way you calm me down makes me so high

Baby, you really got a hold on me
Wanna chase the sun and moon around with you
All around with you
Lately everything feels lighter
Wanna be the one you run to
One you run to
You run to, you run to

8) I Guess So

Oh my two feet have cheated me
Tore me from your side
I've got two legs in good standing
Or so it seems in your mind

Now you've gone and locked the door
And I ain't one to sugar coat it
If you're uneasy we'll I guess so

Shaking hands with the drifters
Taking wage from dirty hands
I took the high road and left the scene
And all the wandering eyes
Every town has its talkers
The dogs their day, the hens are squawking
If you believe it well
I guess so

9) Take Me Back (For the Night)

Light the candle
Ring the bell

Show me the look I'm longing to see
The one I used to know well
Before I did you wrong
Before our love is gone
While the moon shines
Treat me kind
Take me back for the night

Pour me another cup of wine
Let's sing our favourite tune
Whispering sweet nothings
The way we used to do
Before I did you wrong
Before our love is gone
While the moon shines
Treat me kind
Take me back for the night

Laying in my baby's arms
That's where I wanna stay
Caught in between life and dream
Made of of yesterdays

Light the candle
Ring the bell
Show me the look I'm longing to see
The one I used to know well
Before I did you wrong
Before our love is gone
While the moon shines
Treat me kind
Take me back for the night

10) Linda Lou

A handful of flowers
Will be the offer
For my darling Linda Lou
Linda Lou, what are you gonna do?

Wandering boy waits at her windowsill
Don't have a home, but he may stay the night until
The morning returns to you
Linda Lou, what are you gonna do?

She'll take your hand and she'll show you every answer
Cosmic connections and brilliance surround her

Her poetry rings straight and true
Linda Lou, what are you gonna do?

Lady of silence
To whom they all submit
Lays down her head at night
So curious in the quiet
Who will be the mirror to you?
Linda Lou, what are you gonna do?

11) Falling Behind

Muted sunlight through the window
Morning brings the song of love
The beauty of a summer rain
The sings a sweet and soft refrain

I can feel you near me
I wish I had you near me
Oh but you're not mine and I'm running out of time
Oh but you're not mine and I'm falling behind once again

A moonlit path across the water
Leads to dreams of old and new
The sun kissed drops of the morning dew
The newfound thought of me and you

I can feel you near me
I wish I had you near me
Oh but you're not mine and I'm running out of time
Oh but you're not mine and I'm falling behind once again
